Dear Parent/Guardian

The Rochelle Park Board of Education is currently structuring the bus routes for the 2020/2021 school year.

The options available for your child, please select one:

You may waive services for your child and transport yourself.

Use the district provided transportation which will mandate your child follows all requirements of the transport, for example wearing a face mask at all times on the bus. There is no guarantee that social distancing will occur on the bus.

Because of time constraints, we ask for your responses no later than August 20, 2020. If you need additional information or have any questions, please email Mrs. Leka at transportation@rochellepark.org.

This information may be submitted to the email address.
